Ref. T 6/19.1 : AP034/10 (FS)

26 February 2010

Subject: Implementation of the Global Aviation Safety Plan (GASP) in the Asia Pacific region

Action Required: To provide information no later than 5 March 2010

Sir/Madam,

It is my pleasure to extend greetings of the ICAO Asia Pacific Office to you and your colleagues in your Administration.

The ICAO Asia Pacific Office is collecting information on the status of implementation of the Global Aviation Safety Plan (GASP) in the Asia Pacific region. While we have some level of information on the member States participating in the three COSCAP programmes in Asia, but little or no information is available on the remaining States.

The requested information may kindly be collated under the following areas:

- Level of Implementation of the Global Aviation Safety Plan;
- Progress in conducting Gap Analysis;
- Progress in developing and implementing action plans including the use of safety solutions developed by other bodies (e.g. CAST safety initiatives).

As the information is urgently required for the development of a paper to be presented at the forthcoming High Level Safety Conference and subsequently the next Assembly Session, I would request you to kindly provide this information at your earliest convenience but no later than Friday, 5 March 2010.

As always the ICAO Asia Pacific office looks forward to your kind cooperation in addressing safety issues in our region.

Assuring you Sir/Madam of my highest consideration.

Mokhtar A. Awan
Regional Director
